Oktoberwest is finally here!

To the serial procrastinators and those of you who are still pondering whether you prefer bratwurst or chicken: time is running out!

Yes, it's here at last - Oktoberwest 2026 takes place this weekend on Saturday 26 September and next weekend on Saturday 3 October. Consider this the last orders bell to get your tickets!

The taproom is decked out in white and blue, the oompah band are tuning up their tuba, and our brand-new beer, Albion, is brewed and ready to take centre stage as this year's official Festbier.

We're ready to rock with 20th Century Boys

From the procrastinators to the big planners now, as looking ahead we've got some cracking events lined up for you this autumn.

On Saturday 10 October, join us for the return of 20th Century Boys to Westerham Live Sessions.

Playing a string of stripped back classics, you can expect to enjoy covers of artists like Pink Floyd, David Bowie, T. Rex and many more. We had a blast last time 20th Century Boys took to the stage in the taproom, which is why we've invited them back to transport us once more to the golden age of rock 'n' roll.

They'll be leaping into action at 6:30pm, so make sure you arrive in time to grab a pint along with the best seats in the house.

Meat the Chef will be here during the afternoon on Saturday 26 September and Saturday 3 October, serving food until 5pm.
